

Housing Displacement Vulnerability

Multnomah County, Oregon

Housing displacement affects vulnerable populations in urban areas across the United States. This index uses demographics on race, educational attainment, median income, and rental occupancy to evaluate this vulnerability in census tracts with data provided from the American Community Survey.

Map and layout created by Chance Morrison, Feb 2025

